Police accountability in the suburbs. Cecilia Lei.

In smaller towns across the Bay Area, police use-of-force is less subject to oversight than in the major cities. "Police are more free to do what they want," said Ben, a former police officer who asked not to be named.

Postcard from Tokyo: Courtesy breakfast a media must - and there's cappuccino! The last time I was in Japan, at the 1998 Winter Olympics in Nagano, I stayed in a media village where the dining hall provided both traditional Japanese breakfast foods and trays of watery scrambled eggs.
